AN ACT

1 Prohibiting discrimination against persons based on unemployment
2 status; providing for powers and duties of the Department of 3 Labor and Industry; and imposing penalties.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 5 hereby enacts as follows:

6 Section 1. Short title.

7 This act shall be known and may be cited as the Pennsylvania
8 Fair Employment Opportunity Act.

9 Section 2. Definitions.

10 The following words and phrases when used in this act shall 11 have the meanings given to them in this section unless the 12 context clearly indicates otherwise:

13 "Department." The Department of Labor and Industry of the 14 Commonwealth.

15 "Employer." An employer as defined in the act of January 17, 16 1968 (P.L.11, No.5), known as The Minimum Wage Act of 1968, or 17 any person acting, directly or indirectly, in the interest of 1 any employer in relation to an employee.

2 "Employment agency." An employment agency licensed under the 3 act of July 31, 1941 (P.L.616, No.261), known as the Employment
4 Agency Law, or a person regularly undertaking with or without 5 compensation to procure employees for an employer or to procure 6 for individuals opportunities to work as employees for an 7 employer and includes an agent of such a person, and a person 8 who maintains an Internet website or print medium that publishes 9 advertisements or announcements of job openings for employees.

10 "Unemployment status." An individual's present or past 11 unemployment regardless of the length of time the individual was 12 unemployed.

13 Section 3. Prohibited acts.

14 (a) Employers.--It shall be unlawful for an employer to:

15 (1) refuse to consider for employment or refuse to hire
16 an individual because of the individual's unemployment 17 status; or

18 (2) publish or circulate, in any medium, an 19 advertisement or announcement for a job vacancy that includes
20 any provision stating that an individual's unemployment
21 status disqualifies the individual for a job or any provision
22 stating that an employer will not consider an individual for 23 employment based on the individual's unemployment status.

24 (b) Employment agencies.--It shall be unlawful for an 25 employment agency to:

26 (1) refuse to consider or refer an individual for 27 employment based on the individual's unemployment status;

28 (2) limit, segregate or classify individuals in any 29 manner that may limit their access to information about jobs 30 or referral for consideration of jobs because of their

1 unemployment status; or

2 (3) publish or circulate, in any medium, an
3 advertisement or announcement for a job vacancy that includes
4 any provision stating that an individual's unemployment
5 status disqualifies the individual for a job or any provision
6 stating that an employer will not consider an individual for 7 employment based on that individual's unemployment status.

8 (c) Employment assessment.--Notwithstanding any other 9 provision of this section, this act may not preclude:

10 (1) an employer from circulating an announcement for a 11 job vacancy that limits hiring to the employer's existing 12 work force; or

13 (2) an employer or employment agency from considering an 14 individual's employment history or factual and objective 15 reasons underlying an individual's unemployment status in 16 assessing an individual's ability to perform the vacant job.
17 An employer or employment agency may assess whether an 18 individual's employment in a similar or related job for a 19 period of time reasonably proximate to the consideration of 20 the individual for employment is consistent with industry 21 practice and necessary to successful performance of the 22 vacant job.

23 Section 4. Enforcement.

24 (a) Duties of department.--The department shall enforce and 25 administer the provisions of this act and may promulgate 26 regulations necessary to implement this act.

27 (b) Investigations.--The department shall investigate
28 credible complaints made to the department alleging violations
29 of this act.

30 (1) For the purposes of investigating complaints and

1 ascertaining whether an employer or employment agency is in 2 compliance with this act and regulations issued under this 3 act, the department shall have the authority to:

4 (i) enter and inspect a place of business to examine 5 and copy any records of an employer or employment agency
6 that the department deems necessary for the investigation 7 of a violation of this act, or to require production of 8 records that are regularly stored outside this 9 Commonwealth within a reasonable time, as determined by 10 the department, following written notice from the 11 department;

12 (ii) require production of records by an employer, 13 employment agency or media source that has circulated or 14 published the job announcement or advertisement;

15 (iii) require statements in writing; and 16 (iv) interrogate individuals.

17 (2) The department shall provide a written response to 18 the complainant at the conclusion of the investigation
19 stating the department's determination related to whether a 20 violation of this act has occurred.

21 (c) Subpoenas.--The department shall have investigatory
22 subpoena power. Application may be made to the Commonwealth
23 Court to enforce a subpoena. However, nothing in this section 24 may be construed to excuse a person from producing documents and 25 records as requested by the department under any other provision 26 of law.

27 Section 5. Penalties.

28 (a) Fines.--The department shall levy administrative 29 penalties on an employer or employment agency that violates this 30 act or any regulation issued under this act.

1 (1) For a first offense, the fine shall be not less than 2 $1,500 nor more than $3,000 for each violation of this act.

3 (2) For a second or subsequent offense, the fine shall 4 be not less than $3,000 nor more than $6,000 for each 5 violation of this act.

6 (3) In the case of advertisements or announcements that 7 are in violation of this act, each medium, publication or 8 circulation source of an advertisement or announcement shall 9 constitute a separate violation of this act.

10 (b) Corrective action.--The department may order an employer
11 or employment agency to take any action that the department 12 deems necessary to correct a violation of this act.

13 (c) Procedure.--This section is subject to 2 Pa.C.S. Chs. 5
14 Subch. A (relating to practice and procedure of Commonwealth 15 agencies) and 7 Subch. A (relating to judicial review of 16 Commonwealth agency action).

17 Section 6. Retaliation prohibited.

18 (a) Unlawful acts.--It shall be unlawful for an employer or 19 employment agency to:

20 (1) interfere with, restrain or deny the exercise of any 21 rights provided under this act; or

22 (2) discharge, discriminate or take adverse action
23 against a person in retaliation for exercising rights
24 protected under this act. Rights protected under this act 25 include:

26 (i) making a complaint to or informing the 27 department or any person about an employer's violation of 28 this act;

29 (ii) participating in investigations or proceedings; 30 and

1 (iii) informing any person of his or her potential 2 rights and assisting the person in asserting those 3 rights.

4 (b) Civil actions.--An individual who in good faith alleges
5 a violation of this section may bring a civil action in a court
6 of competent jurisdiction against an employer or employment
7 agency within two years from the date upon which the violation
8 occurs. Taking adverse action against an individual within 90
9 days of the person's exercise of rights protected under this act 10 shall raise a rebuttable presumption of having done so in 11 retaliation for the exercise of those rights.

12 Section 7. Effective date.

13 This act shall take effect immediately.
